Success of a Georgian artist

Theater addresses

A rose does not come without thorns

Georgian artist Irina Gabiani, who currently lives in Luxembourg, won two prizes at the 3rd International Art Prize Arte Laguna: Sculpture Section.

Her work "A rose does not come without thorns" received:

a) Great Mention of the President of the Jury of the Best Foreign Artist prize

b) Virtual Jury Prize – decided by internet visitors

More than 3,300 artists from 15 countries took part in the competition.

The works of the 30 best participants, including Gabiani, were exhibited in the Italian city of Treviso in October 2008.
